Take the 2017

PSAT/NMSQT®

What does the PSAT/NMSQT measure?

The PSAT/NMSQT® measures reading, writing and language, and math skills developed over many years, both in and out of school.

You will not be asked to recall facts from literature, history, or science, or to complete math formulas, because this test measures your reasoning and critical thinking skills.

Why take the test?

- See your scores online and learn more about what they mean at collegeboard.org/psat/scoring
- Get free, personalized, and focused practice through Khan Academy®
- Prepare for the SAT®
- Start getting ready for college
- Enter scholarship competitions
- See which AP® courses you might be ready for

Test Content

	PSAT/NMSQT
Reading	47 questions/tasks (60 minutes)
Writing and Language	44 questions/tasks (35 minutes)
Math Test – No Calculator	17 questions/tasks (25 minutes)
Math Test – Calculator	31 questions/tasks (45 minutes)

Testing Time

- Actual testing time for PSAT/NMSQT and PSAT 10 is 2 hours and 45 minutes, plus 10 minutes for breaks.

What should I bring on test day?

- No. 2 pencils with erasers
- Approved calculator (see page 32)
- Social Security number (optional)
- Student ID number, assigned by your school (optional)
- Email address (optional)
- Current and valid school- or government-issued photo ID if you are not testing at the school you normally attend (More ID information is given at sat.org/id-requirements.)

Online preparation and resources:

- Go to collegeboard.org/psat/practice for sample questions and practice test answer explanations.
- Go to collegeboard.org/psat/scoring to get more information about scoring and linking to practice.
