PEER RESOURCES

Peer Counselors are available periods 1 through 6 in the Counseling Office! They are trained to support you. Peer counselors understand teen issues and feelings because they are teens themselves! Need a friend? Chat with one of us. We are located in the Counseling Office.

Conflict Mediators are available in the Student Welfare office to help resolve conflict between students.

Our GATEWAY TO SUCCESS program serves to link students with counselors or other health and wellness resources that will help them work through the challenges that are interfering with their academic, personal, or social adjustment. In addition, it provides parents an opportunity to receive on-going support and education via the Parent University, Parenting Classes, and various workshops throughout the school year.
